

Code: 17S09101

M.Pharm I Semester Regular Examinations February 2018

CLINICAL PHARMACY PRACTICE

(Pharmacy Practice)

(For students admitted in 2017 only)

Time: 3 hours

Max. Marks: 60

Answer all the questions

1 How do you write pharmaceutical care plan using either SOAP analysis or FARM analysis? Explain.

OR

2 How do you assess medication related problems? Explain various methods to assess the same.

3 Explain the role of pharmacist in taking medication history interview and drug utilization evaluation.

OR

4 (a) Explain basic concepts of pharmacovigilance, hemovigilance and materiovigilance.
(b) Differentiate ADE and ADR with examples.

5 How do you take patient case history? Explain the structure of patient case profile and its significance.

OR

6 Describe renal function tests and liver function tests with interpretation.

7 What are the cardiac markers? Discuss merits and demerits of estimating each one. Write short notes on ECG interpretation.

OR

8 What are the electrolytes commonly estimated in clinical laboratories? Explain various types of electrolytic imbalances with values.

9 How do you answer drug information query if your clinician asks you a query? Explain.

OR

10 Explain organization and functions of Poison information centre.
